Hey,
I want your Pinto.
Get yourself a place in the city so we can have a really good time. There are a lot of things you've been getting together, so keep it up. I'm not much at writing so later on,

Love,

Dreg baby,

I'm glad I met you this year, I'll never be the same! You're loads of fun and I hope you enjoy college (I'm certain you will!) I've loved your performances!

Maybe we'll be on Broadway together! (or be backstage!) Love & God bless you!

Since you want it longer here's a very long message for you you my best boy. And nothing you do is wrong I wish you belonged to me.

Dreg,
I won't take up space in your yearbook cuz you already know how much I care for you & how much I dig you! Just want you to know that when you finished "looking around" I'll always be here.

Love Always

Dear Greg
We have known each other for a long time and I think I have really gotten to know you. We really have gone through alot this last summer and this school year. Mame, Oliver, and all those things I think you have got a wonderful talent and you should be continuing in it. I really do think you are a great and I also respect you for many things. I know I will see more of you and do have a great summer and mean it.

LOVE,
Lori Steen
(Judy Thompson)

Although I've only known you for a short time (and you didn't even know my name) it's been fun knowing you. You're just about the liveliest person I've ever met. The best of luck and happiness, always. Love Judy Believe me, last year, when you told me what you wanted most in life while you were signing my yearbook, I understood but had doubts. Well, now I have no doubts. You can have whatever you want, out of life, with your talent. You're a great guy & I hope will always be the closest of friends.

Love,
Patti
(Patti Furquish)

Dear Greg,
I am not very good at writing yearbooks so I must just say...

Much love to you!
Jenny Quick
I will remember you and our relationship!

Greg - Do you remember that fiasco at the beginning of the year - but I love chaos; Pygmalion was (for a loss for words) interesting? (which one?) But of the course the cast was the finest n'est-ce pas? How have we survived these god awful zero periods. I'M SICK OF IT!!! (now it's out of Hope the soft shoe digs it at TCU (I'm going away to school too - I can hardly wait) Summer will be far out a little crazy. rod mc kuen

Hey your party the other night was all right. Patrick was fantastic. Good luck 5

Greg,

It has been a million laughs knowing you this last year. I shall never forget the hundreds of heart attacks I almost had, the time we all went to lunch at the park, and all the jokes we had.

You are a very talented person and maybe someday when you become famous I'll say to my children, "I went to school with him."

I wish you all the success in your dreams, loves, and school work.

May God bless you always,

Greg - You're a lil sweetheart, but I suppose you hear that from alot of girls. Mine was our greatest get-together (meaning the whole cast.?) You did a fantastic job that really didn't surprise me at all. I enjoyed

TEACHERS·TEACHER

Gregory,

Perhaps I've misspelled your name, but what's in a name anyway? A rose by any other name would smell as sweet.

Good grief! I don't even know you. We've laughed (giggled is a better word) and we've screamed over hassels (such as Mrs. Scruggs' Humanities and the counseling office). My point is that we've had a limited yet a fun relationship (If I may use the term -)

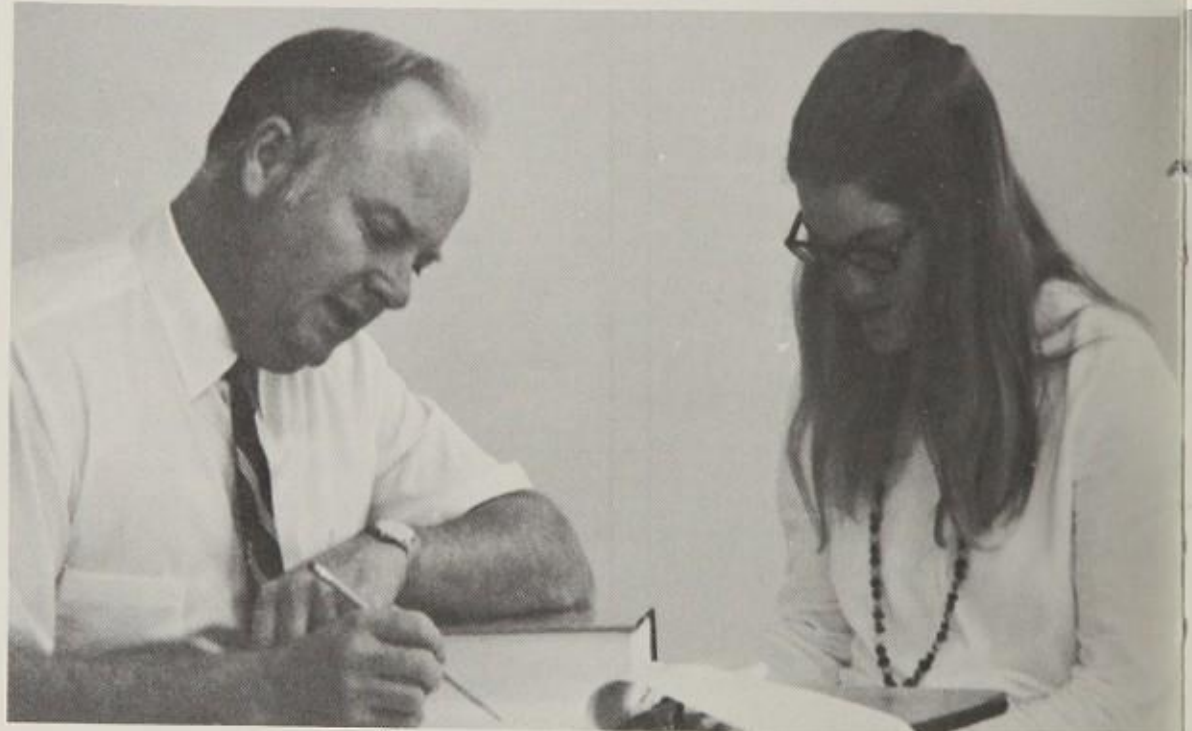

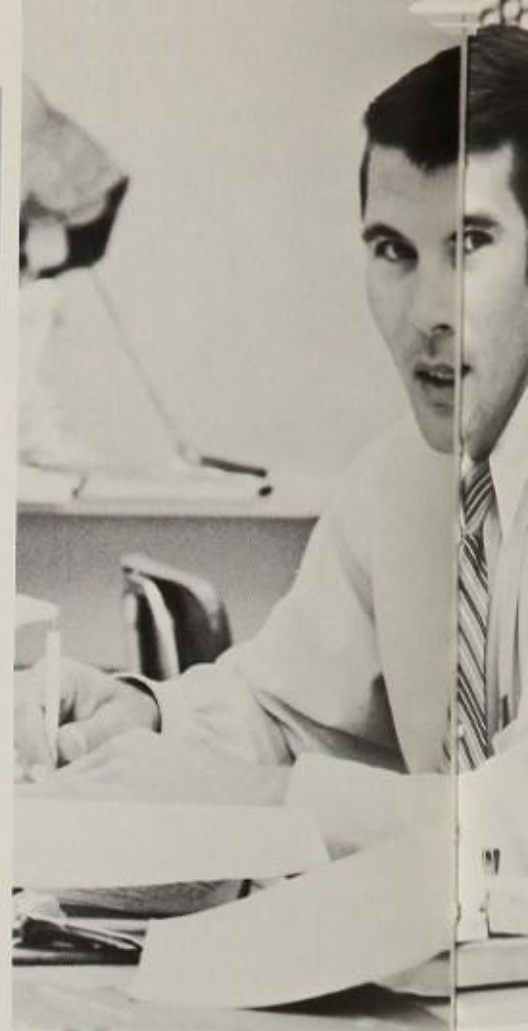

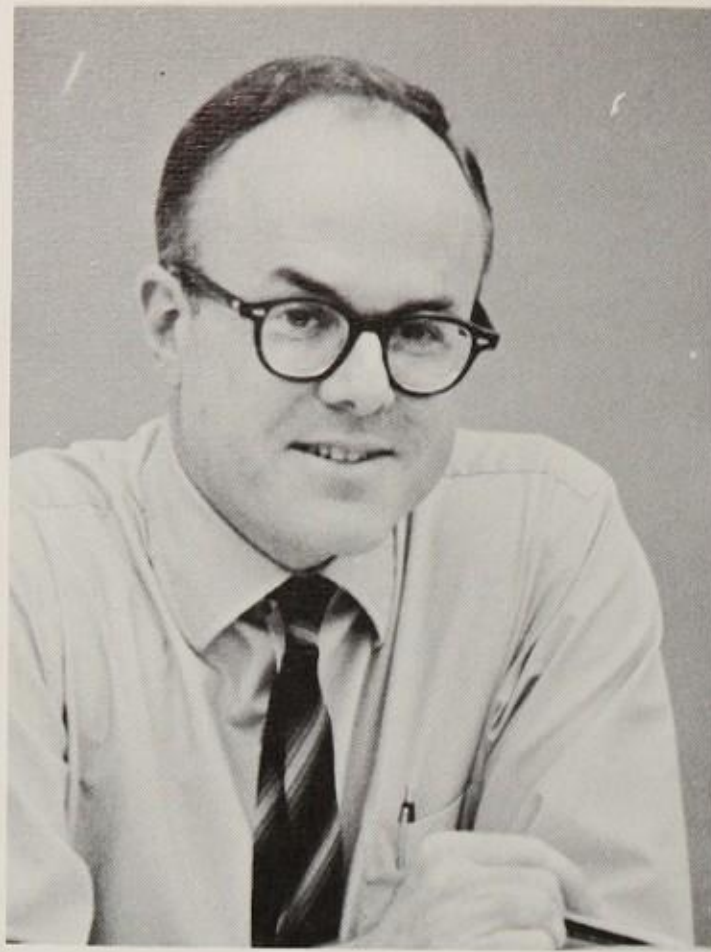

I don't know you well enough, (if at all) to rampage about how great you are - you're you - take it for what it's worth.

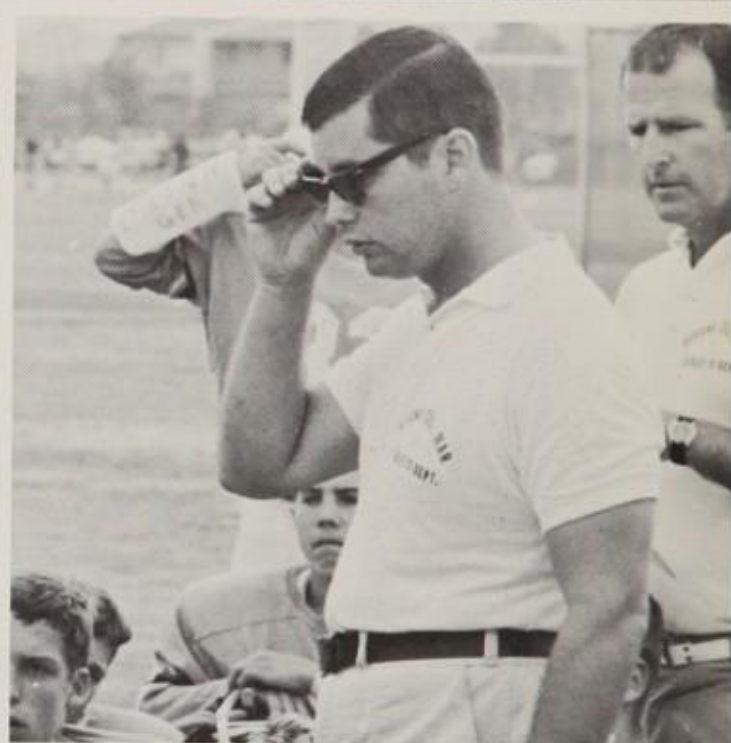

(It is worth a lot by the way - except that I'm no real judge of character so I can't tell you something because it might not be worth it. -) As the saying goes, I'll quit while I'm ahead because I hate being non-sensical - Take care Love Susan Schreck

Greg,
 Why you dramatic little charmer! Greg, when someday you will, but I would like to see you reach the top, back on this, and I shall look and we will exclaim "BIG D.E.H." But this year was a big deal for both of us!
 I enjoyed dramatizing ~~with~~ your all these times in speech class, and even drama. Drama class. Was, what a comparison to our history class! as always, I wish you the happiness of being successful.
 Love ya,
 Sleep &
 P.S. Don't ever, mind your honey, ever eat a bowl of soup without having a fond memory of me!
 (The Palladini)

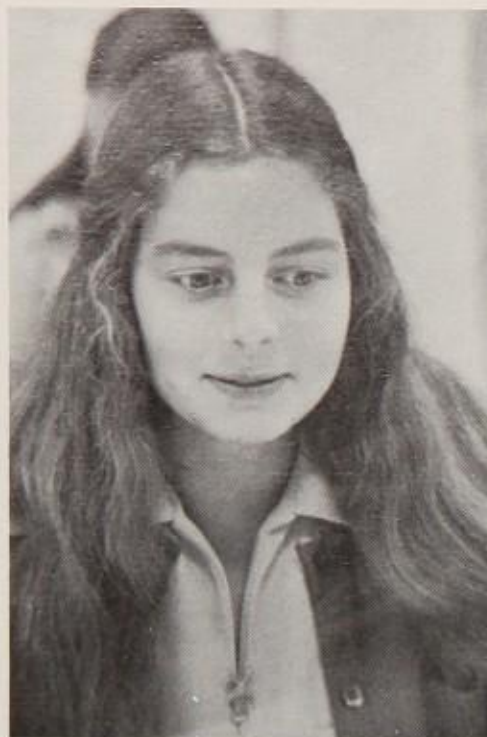

CLUBS•CLUBS•CLU

Greg,
 Of all those that have stonned - you stand out for high achievement. I met you while typing in the library if you remember I was typing 28 words a minute and you 60?
 When I found out that you were in Oliver and then I founded out all of your talents. Especially your ~~the~~ savoir faire. What am I say but Be YOUR Self!

reg - you have you to do tomorrow class. You know way in the whole senior class. You know that I can't wait until you hit the big times on Broadway cause I've told you that at least one hundred times. Don't forget that I still want my free tickets when you get there. I hope that you won't forget ~~get~~ me during your college years because I definitely won't forget you (how could I). Knowing me - when you're on Broadway I will say "I went to school with him!" And everyone will say "sure." Good luck at Texas Christian University I know you'll do well in everything thing that you try You were fantastic in Mame - I really enjoyed it. I hope to see you every once in a while over the summer cause I'll miss you. We had a great time in physiology dissecting cats & shooting up chickens and singing "What's new? pussycat!" Mr. Lash will be glad to get rid of us! You're really a fantastic guy and I really enjoy your company and laughter and brightness. If you get a chance while

Howdy,

Three cheers for the mouse that roared! You know, I think that mouse was a ~~Dude~~ Doral mouse because he sings and dances at Harbor High and Laguna. Wow, neat! Anyway here's luck to your career as a villain.

Well don't let your head go up in smoke!

Day, after many hours searching for a place to write something, I fell upon this small patch. Physiology was produced quite a few notes like Cindy, Casey, and Th. Lash. Saw you in "Mame" and you did an absolutely fabulous job, and a pretty entertaining one too. Good luck in Texas, and in any more productions that you star in. Be careful of tall women.

You are a very different person, though, I will say. I would love to see you when you're 5'10" next year. Wow! Stay happy, always — though I know you will certainly try.

Dear Greg,

You are on your way up - Don't stop now & don't fall back to that squiggly lil' bopper who drove me up the walls long ago last year. I can't begin to thank you for the magnificent job you did as Patrick in Wame + for all the excitement & joy you've added to my life. You have a superb talent. Treat it well & be grateful for it & success will always be yours. I'll keep tabs on you so remember all those things I've tried to pound into your head and I'll be proud of you forever.

(Greg one more thing honey, good luck at college and you're the most loveable guy I've ever met. I love you again!)

✓ Sweet heart. Good Looking

For sure. Good luck in your career, we'll both make it for certain. all you need is discipline - you got it. I'm getting it. I love you very much Greg Honey. I'll see you for sure in on coming years. Bye darling love you

AMERICAN YEARBOOK COMPANY

To my little brother: Hi Greg: We have been very close friends for 2 years now. Except for a while there things were pretty bad between us. I mean that fight we had was pretty bad. I will never forget it; for it will always be in by subcon forever. But we started over and I know that we would of been closer if it wasn't for that fight, but we are not doing so bad right now. Now we haven't been to a Rix in ages. we better go to one soon before we forget what it looks like. This summer is really going to be far out because I will be working some where, hopefully in the Mall at Fashion Island. I hope that you make it back to New York and I want you to have a good time at Texas Christian and meet some really super people. We must keep in touch with each other in the winter and maybe we can see each other on a semester break. We have had some really good laughs at Jonan and with Cindy and Mary. Are Senior year had to be the year of school ever - had so many free periods this year and had fun sleeping in Senior Square. Taking off when ever I didn't have a class. Cindy and I had a really great time at the San Diego zoo on May 28, (1971) It was fun aggravating the Monkeys. I must say ~~and~~ we made pretty fast time on the way home from the Shakeys Pizza Parlor.

in San Diego. Since we didn't go under 90 miles an hour. (Don't try to deny it either) I don't know if I am going to Grad-Nite or not probably not - I think I am going to celebrate it with Bill. Go out and get smashed - and have a jolly old time. I can't wait for the Debutante Ball June 18. Good Luck Next Year what do I write now that's original, interesting, meaningful, etc.

Ok, here goes. I'll miss light of my eyes, heart throbs of my beating heart - what will I can I live, how will I exist when you sunny face will no longer light my life? that the puns are over (and they're not really miss you and here comes to write to find you when you're in college. And I want because I find no valid reason why I that's school ends again, well why it should be that way each other O.K. I really enjoyed with us. I really think I'll miss having all of those ridiculous remarks coming out of your mouth. I really enjoyed doing Oliver Wendell. I think I will always remember trying to get into character while you were out there doing. Where is love. You little workyouse brot! But the height of your career was young Pat.

I'll be looking forward to hearing your name a bit and floating about going to school I'm so happy to know that every person in the world isn't a closed minded bitcher. If you ever come back please try to find me. that will probably take a lot of luck.
